PROPHECY OF THE LATTER DAY RICH VSS.1-6

THE PROPHETIC DENOUNCEMENT

EXEGESIS VERSE 1:

GNT James 5:1 "Αγε νῦν οἱ πλούσιοι, κλαύσατε ὀλολύζοντες ἐπὶ ταῖς ταλαιπωρίαις ὑμῶν ταῖς ἐπερχομέναις.

NAS James 5:1 Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries which are coming upon you. "Αγε ἄγω (vImppa--2s; interj. +) νῦν (adv.; "Come now!"; same constr. 4:13) οἱ ὁ πλούσιοι, πλούσιος (d.a. + ap-vm-p; "You rich/wealthy") κλαύσατε κλαίω (vImpaa--2p; "weep/cry"; same as 4:9) ὀλολύζοντες ὀλολύζω (supplem..ptc./p/a/nm2p; "crying out/howling/wailing") ἐπί (pL; "over/for") ὑμῶν σύ (npg-2p; ref. the rich) ταῖς ἡ ταλαιπωρίαις ταλαιπωρία (d.a. + n-Lf-p; "miseries/hardships"; used 2x; Rom.3:16) ταῖς ἡ ἐπερχομέναις. ἐπέρχομαι (subs.ptc./p/d/df-p; prophetic present; "the ones coming upon you/overtaking you"; used 9x)

ANALYSIS VERSE 1:

- 1. Vss.1-6 constitute a single paragraph in the Greek text.
- 2. Though a chapter break is made, James' thoughts remain connected to chapter 4.
- 3. Against the background of many of these believers' cosmic pursuits, James' spontaneously prophesies against the unprincipled rich.
- 4. James sudden prophetic outburst is not unlike the pattern of other OT, NT prophets.
- 5. It is common in the OT for prophets to suddenly and without much warning prophesy concerning the end-times.
- 6. A local phenomenon is the springboard for a remote and distant one.
- 7. Such as Babylon in Israel's dispersion of 586BC becoming the prophetic background for political Babylon in the last days in Jer.50-51.
- 8. The prophecy is stated in vss.1-6 and direct exhortations from it follow in vss.7-12.
- 9. The prophecy harks back to the prophecy of the passing of the –V rich in 1:11.
- 10. There to highlight the temporal nature of their successes.
- 11. That James just finished emphasizing the temporal nature of men (4:14), this prophecy assumes that fact and adds further force regarding the rich.
- 12. It is designed for these believers to consider the fact that:
 - A. Pursuit of riches (FSH as MPR) is a cosmic trend that results in such abuse it ultimately leads to historical judgment and suffering. Vss.1-3
 - B. Therefore, why pursue such a path of cosmic evil?
 - C. A reminder that the rich in the cosmic system comprise a specific economic class of –V highly responsible for the sufferings of the righteous (cp.2:6-7). Vss.4-6

- D. Therefore, why cater to their persons for prosperity?
- 13. In vss.7-11, James will call these believers to embrace the virtue of patience in light of their own underserved suffering under this cosmic system.
- 14. This in contrast to the ultimate deserved sufferings of the rich.
- 15. Vs.12 will then highlight the importance of the believer's integrity before God.
- 16. This in contrast to the lack of integrity found in the rich.
- 17. Vss.13 then provides the first definite break from this subject as James will close the epistle with further exhortation and doctrinal instruction.
- 18. That a prophecy is in view is made clear with reference to "the last days" in vs.3 and the "coming of the Lord" in vss.7-8.
- 19. These believers are to use the rich of their time as a frame of reference for the latter day counterparts.
- 20. They and their kind are ultimately destined for destruction.
- 21. The unprincipled negative rich throughout history form a tyrannical (unjust and oppressive) chain of domination over men.
- 22. Historically, it has been the wealthy that have predominately ruled over the masses.
- 23. This through political influence and domination.
- 24. Their control has been greatly limited to a national or empirical level.
- 25. In the last days, it culminates into the super rich gaining international control.
- 26. While the -V elite of the last days receive the ultimate blow, they represent the epitome of evil their predecessors have embraced throughout history.
- 27. Their doom is impending and coming.
- 28. James addresses these in fashion to the believers in 4:13, "Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries which are coming upon you".
- 29. The interjectory address "Come now" still carries a sense of disbelief.
- 30. It's hard to imagine that the rich will ultimately not be satisfied in their oppression of mankind until they achieve world domination.
- 31. The insatiable nature of the STA driven by –V can almost boggle the mind.
- 32. However, unlike James use of the phrase in 4:13 as a wake up call for believers, there is no hope for these individuals as a class, since they are negative.
- 33. It is not a summons to see their foolishness, but a sharp prophetic denouncement.
- 34. This economic class of humanity is totally offensive in their rebellion against God.
- 35. The latter day rich are responsible for setting the stage with world wide economic disparity pictured in the judgment of the black horse in Rev.6:5-6.
- 36. This economic control falls right into the hands of Antichrist's agenda to implement his own economic control over the world. Rev.13:16-17
- 37. Upon their destruction, Antichrist will perpetuate their designed economic system (a universal banking system) for his own gain.
- 38. These super rich are the predominate class of influence responsible for removing the Divine restraints of nationalism. Psa.2:1-3
- 39. They are the unseen force behind the politics.
- 40. James elicits the proper response from his distant and unhearing audience to weep and howl.
- 41. The weeping is extreme (same as 4:9) associated adverbially with the supplementary participle for loud crying or wailing (howl).
- 42. The sense is that their crying and howling is due to severe pain (vs.3).

- 43. In prophetic exhortations, individuals are asked to cry out over Divine judgment. Isa.13:6; 14:31; 15:2,3; 23:1,6,14; etc.
- 44. They are in fact to experience great emotional and physical trauma over the miseries that await them at that time.
- 45. The hardships and oppression they put upon others will come upon them.
- 46. Many of the rich of James' time as a frame of reference will experience the miseries associated with 70AD.
- 47. But the remote reference is directed to judgment associated with the time of Christ's return.

A CRYPTIC IDENTIFICATION OF THE PROPHETIC RICH

EXEGESIS VERSES 2 – 3:

GNT James 5:2 ὁ πλοῦτος ὑμῶν σέσηπεν καὶ τὰ ὑμάτια ὑμῶν σητόβρωτα γέγονεν,

NAS James 5:2 Your riches have rotted and your garments have become moth-eaten. υμων συ (npg-2p) ο πλοῦτος (d.a. + n-nm-s; "riches/wealth") σέσηπεν σήπω (viPFa-3s; "have rotted/decayed/become corrupted"; 6x in LXX "foul/laid waste/desolated")καί (cc) <math>υμων συ (npg-2p) τὰ το ωάτια ωάτιον (d.a. + n-nn-p; "garments/clothing")γέγονεν, γίνομαι (viPFa--3s; "become") σητόβρωτα σητόβρωτος (a--nn-p; "moth-eaten";<math>
1x in LXX, Job 13:28

GNT James 5:3 ὁ χρυσὸς ὑμῶν καὶ ὁ ἄργυρος κατίωται καὶ ὁ ἰὸς αὐτῶν εἰς μαρτύριον ὑμῖν ἔσται καὶ φάγεται τὰς σάρκας ὑμῶν ὡς πῦρ. ἐθησαυρίσατε ἐν ἐσχάταις ἡμέραις.

NAS James 5:3 (Revised) Your gold and silver have rusted; and their poison will be as a witness against you and will consume your flesh like fire. In the last days you have stored up your treasure! $\dot{\nu}\mu\dot{\omega}\nu$ σ $\dot{\nu}$ (npg-2p) $\dot{\sigma}$ χρυσ $\dot{\sigma}$ ς (d.a. + n-nm-s; "gold") καί (cc) $\dot{\sigma}$ ἄργυρος (d.a. + n-nm-s; "silver"; used 5x) κατίωται κατιόω (viPFp--3s; "have rusted/corroded"; used 1x) καί (cc) αὐτ $\dot{\omega}\nu$ αὐτ $\dot{\sigma}$ ς (npgm3p; ref. gold and silver") $\dot{\sigma}$ ióς (d.a. + n-nm-s; "poison"; same as 3:8) ἔσται εἰμί (vifd--3s) εἰς (pa; "into/unto/as") μαρτύριον (n-an-s; "a witness") $\dot{\nu}$ μ $\dot{\nu}\nu$ σ $\dot{\nu}$ (npd-2p; "to you/against you") καί (cc) φάγεται ἐσθίω (vifd--3s; lit. to eat; "consume/destroy") $\dot{\nu}$ μ $\dot{\omega}\nu$ σ $\dot{\nu}$ (npg-2p; ref. the rich) $\dot{\tau}$ ας $\dot{\eta}$ σάρκας σάρξ (d.a. + n-af-p; "flesh") $\dot{\omega}$ ς (compar.conj; "like") $\pi\hat{\nu}$ ρ. ANALYSIS VERSES 2 - 3:

- 1. Vss.2-3 describe the coming judgment upon the elite's wealth and persons.
- 2. Three prophetic perfects denote the judgment on their wealth: "have rotted", "have become moth-eaten" and "have rusted".
- 3. All 3 perfects denote that the destruction of their wealth is final and perpetual.
- 4. Two interpretational approaches to these perfects have been suggested:
 - A. Figuratively: This states that these 3 forms of wealth have simply become worthless to deliver the rich in that day.

- B. Literal: This states the literal destruction of their wealth in correlation with the destruction of their persons.
- 5. While it is true that their wealth cannot deliver them from Divine wrath, more is in view than the figurative suggests.
- 6. Further, there is no reason to suggest the perfects relate to anything other than a permanent destruction of their wealth along with their persons in vs.3.
- 7. The correct approach is an illustrative-literal approach found common in prophecy.
- 8. The prophet would prophesy futuristic events using language of accommodation to describe events that he and his readers would be familiar with in their time.
- 9. Such as representing modern day missiles using the description of arrows. Cp.Jer.50:9,14
- 10. That the destruction of their wealth is not viewed under normal conditions is made clear in vs.3.
- 11. That which corrodes their precious metals of wealth further has the properties to burn up their flesh like fire.
- 12. It is no guess today that these rich are exposed to the elements of thermonuclear activity.
- 13. Herein lies the cryptic identification of these elite as none other than the mercantile great men of political Babylon described in Rev.18 cp.vs.23 cf.vss.8,9,10,15,18
- 14. Since Russia takes out the US in thermonuclear fashion ~3 years into the trib, it is the super rich of the US that is in view.
- 15. This in contrast to the rich among James' audience that undoubtedly had their wealth confiscated by the Romans rather than left to rot.
- 16. The super rich of our country epitomize the spiritual degradation of this class of economic evil that has evolved over the centuries.
- 17. It is the merchant tycoons of the U.S. that are the power players behind hijacking the world with economic control through international fiat banking and new world order corporate political system.
- 18. In vs.2, James 1st describes the destruction of their acquired details, "Your riches have rotted and your garments have become moth-eaten".
- 19. The "riches" in view looks to their assets found in the details of life acquired under their own FSH.
- 20. Their wealth is immense in its many forms.
- 21. The verb "have rotted/ $\sigma \dot{\eta} \pi \omega$ sepo" looks to a general decay and notes that their acquisitions have been corrupted and no longer of any value.
- 22. The effects of nuclear war have ruined these things permanently.
- 23. The 2nd item focuses on their clothing.
- 24. Expensive and extensive collections of clothing constitute the trappings of the very wealthy. Luk.16:19
- 25. Where warm temperatures exist, unprotected clothing are subject to the clothes moths. Cp.Mat.6:20
- 26. Such moth-eaten garments are practically worthless and generally committed to the rag pile.
- 27. Again, nuclear fallout gives this expression illustrative-literal meaning.
- 28. While modern technology can protect their collections of clothes from insects, they are not immune from the deterioration of an all out nuclear war.

- 29. The bombarding acidic radiation will chew through their clothes like a starving dog on a bone.
- 30. Vs.3a focuses on a specific aspect of their wealth, "Your gold and silver have rusted".
- 31. Their precious metal holdings represent the true depth of their wealth.
- 32. The super rich acquire much of the gold and silver in the world as security for themselves.
- 33. They possess the real wealth of hard currency giving them the leverage to implement and control their bogus fiat economies.
- 34. They hold these metals precious as the ultimate inflation hedge.
- 35. They posses the commodity of wealth that they believe will always have universal value in trade.
- 36. While they may not have hands on possession of gold and silver possessed by independent nations (Fort Knox as example), they wield power over it as collateral for loans and indebtedness by nations to their system.
- 37. But even that is subject to judgment.
- 38. That gold and silver are essentially immune to rust and corrosion, again we see the effects of the nuclear war.
- 39. Commentaries readily acknowledge the unusual language used here.
- 40. So they go completely figurative and conclude that the mentioned "fire" is hell into which they and their wealth are cast.
- 41. Since when does one take their physical details into hell with them?
- 42. Again, the understanding of modern technology allows a figurative-literal approach to be sustained.
- 43. It is not the heat and fire of the thermonuclear blast (it would only melt the metals), but the fallout radiation that causes this rust.
- 44. Much of it will be reduced to radioactive particles filling the air.
- 45. Latter-day technologies make this language of accommodation imperative while obscuring doctrine from the negative.
- 46. It is radiation poisoning that will ultimately destroy their persons as the next clause denotes, "And their poison will be as a witness against you and will consume your flesh like fire".
- 47. The term "poison/ἰός ios" (cp.3:8) is not the same Greek term translated "rust/κατιόω katio" as insinuated in the NAS.
- 48. It is this noun that characterizes the "rust" in view as highly lethal.
- 49. The same agent that corrodes their precious metal will consume their bodies like fire.
- 50. The phrase "like fire/ $\dot{\omega}\zeta$ $\pi\hat{\nu}\rho$ hos pur" is a simile comparing the effects of nuclear radiation to the burning of fire.
- 51. The radiation will literally "eat up" their flesh.
- 52. This as a testimony against them by God in judgment of their evil and as fulfillment of prophecy.
- 53. The witness of their judgment is for perpetuity in time. Cp.Jer.51:26,29; Rev.19:3
- 54. Implied in this scenario is that many of the super elite will have the means to access shelter in the initial barrage of attack against the U.S. by Russia.
- 55. However, by sheer volume of nuclear missiles necessary to wipe out an entire continent, the after radiation will infiltrate the holdings of even the most secure.

- 56. There is no escape even for the most elite in spite of extensive security measures.
- 57. Their deaths are viewed not as instantaneously as the common citizen completely unprotected, but a slower agonizing death from radiation poisoning.
- 58. The final clause explicitly points to the eschatological significance of this prophesy, "In the last days you have stored up your treasure!"
- 59. The last days are here and now to be ultimately fulfilled in the coming tribulation.
- 60. What is most notable of these rich is the hoarding up of their treasure/wealth.
- 61. James here pictures them in their combined wealth.
- 62. The sense is that their individual investments of extreme wealth are aggregated into a representative pool of their immense and vast fortune.
- 63. This is represented in the U.S. today in the private ownership of the Federal Reserve.
- 64. The U.S. Court of Appeals 9th Circuit validated this obvious fact of private ownership in Lewis v. United States (1982).
- 65. It is the Feds that are responsible for economic control through an international banking system.
- 66. They are the instigators and producers of the fiat system we, the EU and so many other countries have adopted in the past century.
- 67. Following is an article that charts the ownership of the Federal Reserve downloaded from http://www.save-a-patriot.org/files/view/whofed.html for your perusal:

Chart 1

Federal Reserve Directors: A Study of Corporate and Banking Influence

Published 1976

Chart 1 reveals the linear connection between the Rothschilds and the Bank of England, and the London banking houses which ultimately control the Federal Reserve Banks through their stockholdings of bank stock and their subsidiary firms in New York. The two principal Rothschild representatives in New York, J. P. Morgan Co., and Kuhn, Loeb & Co. were the firms which set up the Jekyll Island Conference at which the Federal Reserve Act was drafted, who directed the subsequent successful campaign to have the plan enacted into law by Congress, and who purchased the controlling amounts of stock in the Federal Reserve Bank of New York in 1914. These firms had their principal officers appointed to the Federal Reserve Board of Governors and the Federal Advisory Council in 1914. In 1914 a few families (blood or business related) owning controlling stock in existing banks (such as in New York City) caused those banks to purchase controlling shares in the Federal Reserve regional banks. Examination of the charts and text in the House Banking Committee Staff Report of August, 1976 and the current stockholders list of the 12 regional Federal Reserve Banks show this same family control.

The J. Henry Schroder Banking Company chart encompasses the entire history of the twentieth century, embracing as it does the program (Belgium Relief Commission) which provisioned Germany from 1915-1918 and dissuaded Germany from seeking peace in 1916; financing Hitler in 1933 so as to make a Second World War possible; backing the Presidential campaign of Herbert Hoover; and even at the present time, having two of its major executives of its subsidiary firm, Bechtel Corporation serving as Secretary of Defense and Secretary of State in the Reagan Administration.

The head of the Bank of England since 1973, Sir Gordon Richardson, Governor of the Bank of England (controlled by the House of Rothschild) was chairman of J. Henry Schroder Wagg and Company of London from 1963-72, and director of J. Henry Schroder,New York and Schroder Banking Corporation,New York,as well as Lloyd's Bank of London, and Rolls Royce. He maintains a residence on Sutton Place in New York City, and as head of "The London Connection," can be said to be the single most influential banker in the world.

- 68. Within the charts we note true corporate America and the wealthy elite of our time.
- 69. Obviously considering the early years of these charts, changes may have occurred.
- 70. What will probably not change are the primary participants.
- 71. Other noteworthy items of prophetic significance include:
 - A. The continued strong economic tie between corporate America and Britain (Rothchilds).
 - B. This facilitates the political/economic significance of the lion with eagle's wings that are plucked in fulfillment of James' prophesy. Dan.7:4
 - C. The significant number of foreign investors other than Britain.
 - D. This highlights foreign merchants weeping over our destruction. Rev.18:15
 - E. We would also note the further possibilities of foreign investors maintaining residence here in the U.S. (ex. Sir Gordon Richardson; Chart 2).
 - F. The Federal Reserve represents the true power players behind universal banking forming the ideological system that all business is controlled through one entity.

CHARGES AGAINST THE LATTER-DAY SUPER RICH VSS.4-6

THEIR FRADULENT PRACTICES

EXEGESIS VERSE 4:

GNT James 5:4 ίδοὺ ὁ μισθὸς τῶν ἐργατῶν τῶν ἀμησάντων τὰς χώρας ὑμῶν ὁ ἀπεστερημένος ἀφ' ὑμῶν κράζει, καὶ αἱ βοαὶ τῶν θερισάντων εἰς τὰ ὧτα κυρίου Σ αβαὼθ εἰσεληλύθασιν.

NAS James 5:4 Behold, the pay of the laborers who mowed your fields, and which has been withheld by you, cries out against you; ἰδού (interj.part.; "Behold!") ό μισθός (d.a. + n-nm-s; "the pay/wages") τῶν ὁ ἐργατῶν ἐργάτης (d.a. +n-gm-p; "of thelaborers/workers"; used 16x) τῶν ὁ ἀμησάντων ἀμάω (d.a. + adj.ptc./a/a/gm-p; "having mowed/reaped"; used 1x; LXX 5x; mow or reap; denotes the harvesting of grass or grain) $\dot{\nu}\mu\hat{\omega}\nu$ $\sigma\dot{\nu}$ (npg-2p; ref. the rich) $\tau\dot{\alpha}\zeta$ $\dot{\eta}$ $\chi\dot{\omega}\rho\alpha\zeta$ $\chi\dot{\omega}\rho\alpha$ (d.a. + n-af-p; "fields/lands"; used 28x) δ ἀπεστερημένος ἀποστερέω (d.a. + adj.ptc./PF/p/nm-s; "which has been withheld/defrauded/deprived"; ref. to the pay of the workers; used 6x) ἀφ' ἀπό (pAbl; "by"; denotes agency) ὑμῶν σύ (npAbl-2p) κράζει, κράζω (vipa--3s; "keeps on crying out") and the outcry of those who did the harvesting has reached the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. $\kappa\alpha i$ (cc) αi $\dot{\eta}$ $\beta o\alpha i$ $\beta o\dot{\eta}$ (d.a. + n-nf-p; "the outcry"; 1x; LXX, crying out for help) $\tau \hat{\omega} \nu$ δ θερισάντων θερίζω (d.a. + adj.ptc./a/a/gm-p; "of the ones είσεληλύθασιν. είσέρχομαι (viPFa--3p; "has entered harvesting"; used 18x) into/reached") ϵ ίς (pa; "into") τὰ τό ὧτα οὖς (d.a. + n-an-p; "the ears") κυρίου κύριος (n-gm-s) Σαβαώθ (n-gm-p; "of the Sabaoth/armies/hosts"; used 2x; Rom.9:29)

ANALYSIS VERSE 4:

- 1. The interjectory "Behold" now highlights the evil that brings the resolute judgment of God upon the rich.
- 2. Vs.4 begins a series of 3 primary charges levied against them through vs.6.
- 3. The 1st charge revolves around their unfair business practices finding leverage in the fact they are landowners.
- 4. Part of the success of the wealthy is found in their acquisition of real estate.
- 5. Ownership of land gives one direct power over its use, occupancy and resources.
- 6. The more land one owns, the more their potential to exercise control based on demand for need of the land.
- 7. In James' day, a dominate need for land was found in the field of agriculture.
- 8. Food is a primary resource dependent upon by all men.

- 9. Hoards of gold and silver are fine, but you can't eat them.
- 10. Whoever controls the foods commodity market truly has control over the peoples.
- 11. Vast control of real estate for the latter day rich is essential to leverage the power of their wealth over others.
- 12. Again, James' uses the present day rich to illustrate the super rich of this prophecy.
- 13. The unscrupulous rich are renowned for cheating the workers, "the pay of the laborers who mowed your fields, and which has been withheld by you, cries out against you".
- 14. The subject of their evil is the pay that is due those working their fields (tenant farmers).
- 15. The adjectival participle "which has been withheld/ἀποστερέω apostereo" indicates the greedy nature of the rich defrauding the workers from "pay" rightly due them.
- 16. The perfect tense indicates the power of the wealthy in their fraud with the laborer having no real recourse (perpetually successful fraud).
- 17. Too often, the rich influenced the courts and the poor man did not stand a chance against the wealthy. Jam.2:6
- 18. The evil rich only have true concern for money and produce schemes to swindle the very ones that are helping them become richer.
- 19. The fraud in James' time was quite simple in that it involved withholding wages to tenant farmers on a technicality of some kind.
- 20. This produced great hardship among these peasant families.
- 21. Such behavior is quite reprehensible and deserves severe judgment.
- 22. The Mosaic Law strictly prohibited such activity (Lev.19:13; Deu.24:14,15) and prophets vigorously denounced it (Jer.22:13; Mal.3:5).
- 23. The common laborer was much as today that lived paycheck to paycheck.
- 24. The fraud of the modern day elitists, while more sophisticated in scheme, retains the same purpose as those in James' time, i.e., defrauding the laborers from their wages.
- 25. The "fields" of the modern rich looks to the continental U.S. as its base of power over the common man.
- 26. The Federal Reserve (central banking system) has acquired control over vast amounts of real estate in the U.S. (if not theoretically, all).
- 27. Thanks to the collaboration of unprincipled elected politicians in turning the economy of our country over to the "Feds".
- 28. The control of land is as a result of indebtedness by our government in loans with the Federal Reserve and mandatory taxation upon the peoples.
- 29. The Federal Reserve Act was established in 1913, railroaded through Congress and signed into legislation by then President Woodrow Wilson.
- 30. This law created a Federal Reserve Board that functions independently of and is not regulated or effectively accountable to the U.S. Congress.
- 31. The Feds are authorized to coin and print money in direct violation of the U.S. Constitution, Article I, Section 8 that states only Congress has that right.
- 32. Article 1, Section 10 states that "no state shall make anything but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts".
- 33. No wonder U.S. Representative Ron Paul has stated that "Federal Reserve Notes are illegal". Ref. Health/freedom info The Federal Reserve Fraud and the "Invisible Government".

- 34. Each time our Government requires more money, it is essentially taking out a loan with interest that is paid by the American taxpayer.
- 35. The Feds print the money for a few cents and then bill America for its full value; then they charge interest on top of it.
- 36. Correlating with the passage of the Federal Reserve Act, our government had pressed hard for income tax.
- 37. This providing a means and way to pay the Feds.
- 38. The IRS deposits income tax payments directly into the Federal Reserve banks; not into the U.S. Treasury. The Structure of the Federal Reserve System @ federalreserve.gov
- 39. Unfortunately, ³/₄ of the states ratified the 16th Amendment for taxation also in 1913.
- 40. It is estimated that 1/3 of our Federal income tax dollars go to merely pay the interest of the interest that is owed the Feds.
- 41. Our national debt is estimated into the trillions.
- 42. That all real estate is further taxed (ad valorem) in perpetuity by government essentially places private lands as collateral to this fraudulent monstrosity.
- 43. As a debtor nation, home and land owners through taxation will never outright own their homes always indebted to our government (state and federal) that is indebted to the Feds.
- 44. "Prior to 1913, most Americans owned clear, allodial title to property, free and clear of any liens or mortgages until the Federal Reserve Act (1913) "Hypothecated" (pledging something as security; sic) all property within the federal United States to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve, -in which the Trustees (stockholders) held legal title. The U.S. citizen (tenant, franchisee) was registered as a "beneficiary" of the trust via his/her birth certificate. In 1933, the federal United States hypothecated all of the present and future properties, assets and labor of their "subjects," the 14th Amendment U.S. citizen, to the Federal Reserve System." Rep. James Traficant Jr. (Ohio) addressing the House; United States Congressional Record, March 17, 1993 Vol. 33, page H-1303; [sic; my words]
- 45. In addition, the government owns 1/3 of U.S. land mass and large landowners (corporations and wealthy) pay only ½ of the tax rate of small individual landowners.
- 46. The promise of the Feds was that the central banking system and their fiat system would economically sustain and prosper our country.
- 47. Since then, we have experienced our greatest financial crash abandoning the gold and silver standard along the way (Gold standard removed under President Nixon, 1973).
- 48. During the great depression (beginning with the stock market crash a.k.a. "black Tuesday"; 1929), the poor were loosing their farms and land and the rich were gobbling it up pennies on the dollar.
- 49. The small farmer was hit hard and since the depression, farming has assumed its large corporate identity (corporate farming controls ~50% of the farming industry).
- 50. It has been said that control over the farming industry is the first step to totalitarianism of the people.
- 51. Under the fiat system, the Federal Reserve has amounted to inflationary status of the U.S. dollar.
- 52. It is estimated that the U.S. dollar has succumbed to over 1000% inflation.

- 53. This is the "big fraud" of the "Feds".
- 54. As inflation rises, our wages devalue and the super rich become wealthier at the expense of the common man.
- 55. Every dollar the American taxpayer earns today has been depleted of at least 90% of its wealth based on the price of gold as standard.
- 56. The Feds are ripping this country off and their tentacles reach throughout the world in like fashion.
- 57. Economic manipulation is the common denominator found with all unscrupulous rich.
- 58. The fraud of the super rich is said to cry out against them.
- 59. This poetic language reveals their evil as blatantly obvious demanding their impending judgment.
- 60. The oppressive effect on the working class then adds to this demand for judgment, "and the outcry of those who did the harvesting has reached the ears of the Lord of the Sabaoth".
- 61. The victims helpless under this system have only one recourse for help; God.
- 62. The illuminati money machine gains such power only direct Divine intervention can stop it.
- 63. The suffering of the common man reaches into the ears of God in the 3rd heaven.
- 64. This anthropomorphism denotes God's omniscience.
- 65. Nothing gets by God and ultimately He will judge and right all wrongs of the evil against the innocent.
- 66. It indicates the serious nature of this international evil and oppression.
- 67. This same money source is that which finances the global evil of the NWO.
- 68. Both the fraudulent evil of the Feds and their oppressed victims attract God's attention.
- 69. The super rich are fast working at removing the Divine restraints of nationalism setting the world up for the antichrist system.
- 70. The nation responsible for leading the world in this evil scheme is the U.S.
- 71. The expression "Lord of the armies" is a familiar title in the OT rendered "Lord of hosts". Isa.1:9 cp. Rom.9:29
- 72. Those that are poor and/or helpless have the Lord to champion their cause.
- 73. His invisible military of omnipotence overseeing all heavenly and earthly hosts will break their tyranny and punish their injustices. 1Sam.17:45; 2Kgs.6:13-17; Jer.43:10-12; Jer.50:18; 51:11
- 74. God is master over all armies and authorities and will utilize Russia as His whipping post to execute this latter day judgment.

EXEGESIS VERSES 5 - 6:

THEIR INSATIABLE STA LIFESTYLES

GNT James 5:5 ἐτρυφήσατε ἐπὶ τῆς γῆς καὶ ἐσπαταλήσατε, ἐθρέψατε τὰς καρδίας ὑμῶν ἐν ἡμέρα σφαγῆς,

NAS James 5:5 You have lived luxuriously on the earth and led a life of wanton pleasure; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter. ἐτρυφήσατε τρυφάω (viaa--2p; "You have lived luxuriously/reveled"; used 1x; 2x in LXX; Neh.9:25; Isa.66:11) ἐπί (pg) τῆς ἡ γῆς γῆ (d.a. + n -gf-s; "the earth") καί (cc) ἐσπαταλήσατε, σπαταλάω (viaa--2p; "you have led a life of self-indulgence/wanton pleasure"; used 2x; ITim.5:6 ἐθρέψατε τρέφω (viaa--2p; lit. to feed; fig. "you have fattened/gorged/nursed"; used 9x) ὑμῶν σύ (npg-2p) τὰς ἡ καρδίας καρδία (d.a. + n-af-p) ἐν (pL) ἡμέρα (n-Lf-s; "a day") σφαγῆς, σφαγή (n-gf-s; "; lit. cut the throat; "of slaughter"; used 3x; Act.8:32; Rom.8:36)

THEIR MURDEROUS AND RUTHLESS WAYS

GNT James 5:6 κατεδικάσατε, έφονεύσατε τὸν δίκαιον, οὐκ ἀντιτάσσεται ὑμῖν.

NAS James 5:6 (Revised) You have condemned; you have put to death the righteous man; he does not resist you. κατεδικάσατε, καταδικάζω (viaa--2p; "You have condemned"; used 5x; Mat.12:7,37; Luk. $6:37\ 2x$) ἐφονεύσατε φονεύω (viaa--2p; "you have murdered/put to death"; same as $2:11;\ 4:2$) τὸν ὁ δίκαιον, δίκαιος (d.a. + ap-am-s; "the righteous one") οὐκ οὐ (neg +) ἀντιτάσσεται ἀντιτάσσω (vipm--3s; "he does not himself resist/oppose"; same as 4:6) ὑμ $\hat{\nu}\nu$. σύ (npd-2p)

ANALYSIS VERSES 5 – 6:

- 1. Vs.5 contrasts the lifestyle of the latter day rich to the oppressed laborer.
- 2. James uses 3 prophetic agrists to describe the insatiable nature of their pursuits:
 - A. You have lived luxuriously on the earth.
 - B. And led a life of wanton pleasure.
 - C. You have fattened you hearts in a day of slaughter.
- 3. The 1st portrays those having an "in" with the Federal Reserve living a daily existence in the epitome of luxury.
- 4. They surround themselves with only the very best of the details and accourrements of life. Cp.Luk.16:19
- 5. Their stimuli for living are confined to things found on the earth.
- 6. This highlights their FSH under the STA.
- 7. The 2nd agrist adds to the thought of the 1st denoting extreme self-indulgence.

- 8. They spare no expense in the excessiveness of their lifestyles.
- 9. This highlights the insatiable nature of their STA's in the FSH.
- 10. The term for "wanton pleasure/σπαταλάω spatalao" is used in the sense of lack of control over the STA in 1Tim.5:6.
- 11. All that they possess and the use of their wealth is exhausting in their attempt to find happiness and the capacity for life.
- 12. The 3rd aorist "fattened" literally means to satiate with food.
- 13. It is used in Jer.46:21 (26:21 in the LXX) of fattened calves.
- 14. Their "hearts" emphasizes the desires of their souls.
- 15. This points to their recalcitrant –V.
- 16. Their –V seeks to make choices in life for the sole purpose of physical gain and pleasure.
- 17. They pursue these things with no regard for the life to come.
- 18. They are oblivious to their ultimate destiny.
- 19. They are like fattened calves that have been pampered with the best feed (molasses and various grains) solely to be someone's dinner.
- 20. As the owner waits until the calf is in its prime weight, so God waits until their sins have built up sufficiently when he will intervene in judgment.
- 21. The day of slaughter is the day the U.S. is nuked.
- 22. Like a bunch of dumb cows, spiritually they have no real understanding that their present enjoyment bears no resemblance to their end under the SUD.
- 23. Remember Christ's words of Luk.12:34.
- 24. The super rich have the same mind-set of the criminally wicked in Psa.10.
- 25. Vs.6 reveals the darkest element of these bankers' operations; their censure of opponents and murder of believers.
- 26. James uses 2 final prophetic agrists to describe their actions:
 - A. You have condemned.
 - B. You have put to death the righteous man.
- 27. There is no conjunction between the two verbs in the Greek.
- 28. This emphasizes the expediency of their actions.
- 29. The verb "condemned/καταδικάζω katakidazo" looks to the legal power afforded the super rich influencing the judicial systems.
- 30. With this control they have the legal ability to censure any opposition that would seek to thwart their mob like tactics of fraud.
- 31. Any that would oppose the unconstitutionality of the Federal Reserve or IRS have to fight a judicial system that is in bed with the Feds, including Congress.
- 32. Laws protecting operation Feds and the super rich are geared to supplanting justice of the innocent to protecting at whatever cost their international scheme.
- 33. With the intrusions of entities and laws building the NWO (UN, NAU, Patriot Act, EU, ad nauseaum), the freedoms of national citizenry is quickly eroding.
- 34. Any that attempt of calling these elite to task are quickly ostracized by the media and if necessary railroaded through kangaroo courts.
- 35. The common man does not have the financial resources to even compete against these laws in court.
- 36. The "condemning" looks to their ruthless tactics as applied to anyone.

- 37. It is the 2nd clause, "have murdered the righteous man" that shows the extent of what they will do to ensure the security against threats to their system.
- 38. The righteous man is to be viewed here as a collective singular.
- 39. This clause indicates that believers have become victims to their evil.
- 40. That the Feds are the major funding source for the NWO, their tactics of international meddling in governments, etc., have created hostile environments that has caused the loss of life for many believers (missionaries kidnapped, killed, based on rebels financed by NWO types; bogus wars, etc.).
- 41. Their murder is by proxy, just as with political Babylon in general that the Feds are tied with. Cp.Rev.18:24
- 42. Though one would not discount "contracts" issued by the super rich to take out a believer that had gotten in their way.
- 43. The general sense of "put to death" is that the killing is unprovoked and unwarranted by those otherwise innocent.
- 44. The final clause "he does not resist you" indicates the passive nature of believers living under this evil regime.
- 45. The righteous in part are wholly unable to resist such a powerful covert entity.
- 46. Further, there are the believers apply the teaching of Mat.5:39.
- 47. The passive nature of believers is found in their willingness to continue to abide by the laws of the land, even when corrupt.
- 48. Believers are not to try to get even by avoiding paying taxes or retaliating against the government otherwise (political activism, etc.).
- 49. It is God's will for believers in the last days to accept their niche in Satan's world of living under a corrupt regime and recognize that true justice will ultimately be served.
- 50. That the elite of the last days are so ruthless they have no concern even for God's elect is sufficient evil for God to ultimately retaliate.

EXHORTATION FOR PATIENCE UNDER UNDESERVED SUFFERING VSS.7-11

EXEGESIS VERSES 7 – 8:

GNT James 5:7 Μακροθυμήσατε οὖν, ἀδελφοί, ἕως τῆς παρουσίας τοῦ κυρίου. ἰδοὺ ὁ γεωργὸς ἐκδέχεται τὸν τίμιον καρπὸν τῆς γῆς μακροθυμῶν ἐπ' αὐτῷ ἕως λάβῃ πρόϊμον καὶ ὄψιμον.

NAS James 5:7 Be patient, therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Μακροθυμήσατε μακροθυμέω (vImpaa--2p; "Be patient/forbearing/longsuffering"; patience with respect to others vs. ὑπομένω vb. or ὑπομονή n.; patience with respect to circumstances, ex. 1:3,4; 5:11; used 10x; the only kind of patience ascribed to God, 2Pet.3:9 1The.5:14) οὖν, (infer.conj.) ἀδελφοί, ἀδελφός (n-vm-p) ἕως (pg; "until") τῆς ή παρουσίας παρουσία (d.a. + n-gf-s; "the coming/arrival") τοῦ ὁ κυρίου. κύριος (d.a. GNT James 5:8 μακροθυμήσατε καὶ ὑμεῖς, στηρίξατε τὰς καρδίας ὑμῶν, ὅτι ἡ παρουσία τοῦ κυρίου ἤγγικεν.

NAS James 5:8 (Revised) You too be patient; strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is drawing nearer. $\dot{\nu}\mu\epsilon\hat{\iota}\zeta$, $\sigma\dot{\nu}$ (npn-2p; emphatic; "You yourselves") καί (adjunct.; "also") μακροθυμήσατε μακροθυμέω (vImpaa--2p; "be patient"; same as vs.7) στηρίζατε στηρίζω (vImpaa--2p; lit. to set up something so that it remains immovable/fixed/ established; fig. "strengthen/stabilize/be resolute"; used 13x) $\dot{\nu}\mu\dot{\omega}\nu$, $\sigma\dot{\nu}$ (npg-2p) τὰς ἡ καρδίας καρδία (d.a. + n-af-p; "hearts") ὅτι (causal conj;) ἡ παρουσία

(d.a. + n-nf-s; "the coming") τοῦ ὁ κυρίου κύριος (d.a. + n-gm-s) ἤγγικεν. ἐγγίζω (viPFa--3s; "drawing nearer/approaching")

ANALYSIS VERSES 7 – 8:

- 1. In vss.7-12, James draws from the obvious result of undeserved suffering brought upon believers instigated by the unprincipled rich.
- 2. He exhorts revolving around the virtue of patience, "Be patient, therefore, brothers".
- 3. The inferential conjunction "therefore" looks back to the particulars of the prophecy in vss.1-6.
- 4. As a result of the powerfully negative rich controlling the world, the typical believer will experience testing under their oppressive and fraudulent arms.
- 5. The term "brothers" draws from the prophecy with an oratorical flair to include all believers from James' time to the rapture.
- 6. Believers throughout CA history are reminded of the fraternal sufferings all experience corporately as the Church.
- 7. The Church is destined to complete the sufferings of Christ. Col.1:24
- 8. That the prophecy remains James' reference for the exhortation, his words reach into the future to first be applied by believers living in "the last days".
- 9. This is highlighted in the final prepositional phrase "until the coming of the Lord".
- 10. His "coming" has two phases, divided by 7 years:
 - A. The rapture.
 - B. The 2nd Advent.
- 11. That James' prophesy includes tribulational realities, having believers in both the CA and Daniel's 70^{th} week in mind is not implausible.
- 12. For believers in the final days of the CA, the rapture is their immediate delivery with tribulational saints awaiting the 2nd Advent.
- 13. However, the immediate focus is directed towards CA believers as vs.7b makes clear.
- 14. Unlike the deaf ears of the super rich, James' words are designed to be heard by unseen believers some ~1950 years later.
- 15. Believers of the rapture generation will face the full brunt of oppression by these elitists.
- 16. At no other time in CA history does patience have such a dramatic call.
- 17. The term "patient/μακροθυμέω makrothumew" emphasizes patience towards others. Cp.Mat.18:26,29; Luk.18:7 (delay long); 1The.5:14; 2Pet.3:9
- 18. This word is used to describe God's patience. Luk.18:7; 2Pet.3:9
- 19. This in contrast to patience towards circumstances (ὑπομονή hupomone) such as in Jam.1:3;4; 5:11. Cp.Rom.5:3,4; 8:25; 2Cor.1:6; 2Cor.6:4; etc.
- 20. James' choice of word here emphasizes patience the believer must adopt regarding the oppression brought about by the –V rich and towards God in His timing for deliverance.
- 21. In vs.7b, James demonstrates why patience towards others is imperative using an agricultural analogy, "Behold, the farmer waits for the precious produce of the soil, being patient about it, until it gets the early and late rains".

- 22. James is not telling the farmers among them to be patient with respect to their crops (wrong term for patience-makrothumeo).
- 23. The analogy itself is designed to focus the believer on the greater scheme of God's plan for the seasons in view i.e., the CA.
- 24. It illustrates God's patience over believers in the CA and thus showing the importance of this virtue.
- 25. It is allegorical in form and is expected to be interpreted figuratively. Cp.Heb.6:4-7 to 7-8; ref. Jesus' parables
- 26. The term "Behold/Listen up!" is akin to other NT expressions for those of us that have ears to hear. Mat.11:15; 13:9,16,43; Rev.2:7,11,17; 13:9; et al
- 27. It is synonymous for +V to Gap the words at hand.
- 28. The "farmer" is God who is the independent landowner.
- 29. The same Greek term for "farmer/γεωργος georgos" is used in Joh.15:1 for precedent.
- 30. The land He farms represents believers living in the CA.
- 31. The "precious produce (fruit/καρπός –karpos) is used consistently in the NT for Divine good production. Mat.3:8,10; Luk.8:8; Joh.4:36; Joh.15:2,4,5,8,16 cf.Eph.5:9; Phi.1:22; 4:17 (profit); Jam.3:17,18
- 32. The term "soil/γη̂ ge" represents volition. Same word Cp.Luk.8:8 (parable of the sower); Heb.6:7
- 33. Rain or water represents BD. 1Cor.3:6; Eph.5:26
- 34. The concept of early and late rains would be readily familiar to James and his readers with their Palestinian background.
- 35. For the climate in this area, the early rainy season began in early November.
- 36. Without these rains, the crops were doomed to failure.
- 37. Periodic heavy rains came in December through February.
- 38. The late rains began in late April into May.
- 39. The latter rains were most important as to maximum production and maturity for the crops.
- 40. The early rains represent the Apostolic Era in which more doctrine of a pure kind was provided in the CA.
- 41. The exception is the Rapture Generation here represented by the latter rains.
- 42. After the Apostolic Era, there was a sharp tapering off of sound doctrine. Cp.Rev.2:4
- 43. This condition remained until the Reformation revitalized basic doctrine. Rev.3:2
- 44. The latter rains are in the Rapture Generation where doctrine is taught in a purest of ways. Cp.Rev.3:8,18
- 45. It is these rains that represent the epitome of a banner production found as a result of exceptional insight into the WOG.
- 46. Today, there is an understanding of latter day prophecy only those living in the times can fully understand in identification and execution.
- 47. In certain ways we have clearer and deeper insight into the future of this planet that was only a shadow to earlier +V believers.
- 48. Experiential participation and observance heightens the clarity of insight and confidence that accompanies the truth. 2Pet.1:17-19
- 49. Further, the NT is available in its completed written canon providing an immediate solitary resource for in depth study not available in the apostolic period.

- 50. The intensity of the evil and its complexities in the last days compliment the intensity and in depth discernment required for +V in that time to stand firm in the faith. Cp.Mat.24:37-38
- 51. The rains do not suggest that many believers are +V.
- 52. Scripture represents the bulk of believers on earth as –V and apostate at the Rapture.
- 53. The CA is abbreviated because so many reject sound BD. Cp.Rev.3:16
- 54. The rains look to the precious few that are +V desiring as much doctrine for application that they can get.
- 55. God, who is the farmer, is patient regarding mankind to ensure that +V in the CA receives the rain it desires, from beginning to end.
- 56. Believers are to draw upon the purpose of God's patience on behalf of +V maximizing their SG₃ as fuel to remain forbearing to others and with respect to God in the timing of His plan. Cp.2Pet.3:9
- 57. James then makes direct application of this fact in vs.8, "You too be patient; strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is drawing nearer".
- 58. The adjunctive use of "καί kai/too" reabsorbs James' readers to the front of his exhortations.
- 59. The imperatives "be patient" and "strengthen" are 2 urgent applications they need.
- 60. Amidst their own experiences of economic oppression and injustice by the –V rich, they must cultivate the MA of patience.
- 61. They must always keep in front of them the fact that God cannot deal unfairly with them in spite of the character of their oppressors.
- 62. Certainly, God has the ability to remove their sufferings and judge their enemies.
- 63. But God desires maximum Divine good that would be negated if the heat was lifted.
- 64. The 2nd imperative calls upon them to put iron in their souls/hearts.
- 65. In the fortitude of their +V they must find the will for tenacity and toughness.
- 66. This in contrast to allowing themselves to slip into reactor factors and soul-fainting under the FSH.
- 67. They must resolve to face whatever the A/C throws at them determining not to allow the cosmos to upset their spiritual advance.
- 68. The single most important thing they can do is to continue under face-to-face. Cp.2Pet.1:12-15
- 69. Being strengthened is ultimately the work of God in the life of +V. 1The.3:2,13
- 70. The inner life is strengthened by BD and the will to apply it.
- 71. BD with your +V gives you the strength to face the next round in the A/C.
- 72. The motivation to apply under these imperatives is that Christ's return approaches.
- 73. This highlights faith that has the foresight of ultimate vindication.
- 74. The NAS "is at hand" can be misleading implying an extreme nearness promoting the false doctrine of imminence.
- 75. Why would God begin and end a dispensation in 100 years or less when all others are 1000 years and more.
- 76. The idea is that each day in the A/C draws us nearer to the Lord's coming.
- 77. God will intervene and judge on our behalf soon enough and His actions will provide us with eternal vindication.
- 78. Waiting on God's timing for judgment is not unbearable if all +V is a true concern.
- 79. Review the Doctrine of Patience.

A WARNING ABOUT COMPLAINING TOWARDS FELLOW BELIEVERS

EXEGESIS VERSE 9:

GNT James 5:9 μὴ στενάζετε, ἀδελφοί, κατ' ἀλλήλων ἵνα μὴ κριθῆτε· ἰδοὺ ὁ κριτὴς πρὸ τῶν θυρῶν ἔστηκεν.

NAS James 5:9 (Revised) Do not complain, brothers, against one another, that you yourselves may not be judged; behold, the Judge stands at the doors. $\mu\eta$ (neg +) $\sigma\tau\epsilon\nu\dot{\alpha}\zeta\epsilon\tau\epsilon$, $\sigma\tau\epsilon\nu\dot{\alpha}\zeta\omega$ (vImppa--2p; lit. to sigh or groan within or openly; "Stop complaining/grumbling"; used 6x) $\dot{\alpha}\delta\epsilon\lambda\phioi$, $\dot{\alpha}\delta\epsilon\lambda\phioi$ (n-vm-p) $\kappa\alpha\tau$ ' $\kappa\alpha\tau\dot{\alpha}$ (pg; "against") $\dot{\alpha}\lambda\lambda\dot{\eta}\lambda\omega\nu$ (recipr.pro./gm2p; "one another") $\ddot{\nu}\nu\alpha$ (conj.purp.; "so that") $\mu\dot{\eta}$ (neg. +) $\kappa\rho\iota\theta\dot{\eta}\tau\epsilon$ ' $\kappa\rho\dot{\nu}\omega$ (vsap--2p; "you all may not be judged") $\dot{\epsilon}\delta\sigma\dot{\nu}$ (inter.part.; "Behold") $\dot{\delta}\kappa\rho\iota\tau\dot{\eta}\zeta$ (d.a. + n-nm-s; "the Judge") $\dot{\epsilon}\sigma\tau\eta\kappa\epsilon\nu$. $\dot{\nu}\sigma\tau\eta\mu\iota$ (viPFa--3s; "has stood/stands") $\tau\rho\dot{\delta}$ (pAbl; "at") $\tau\dot{\omega}\nu$ $\dot{\eta}$ $\theta\nu\rho\dot{\omega}\nu$ $\theta\dot{\nu}\rho\alpha$ (d.a. + n-Ablf-p; "the doors")

ANALYSIS VERSE 9:

- 1. James now extends the thought of patience as it is to be applied to fellow believers.
- 2. Patience is a virtue that is absent of complaining.
- 3. If these believers expect success in patience towards –V and God, they in application must start within their own local churches.
- 4. The principle is that these believers need to get the affairs of their own household in order as priority #1. Cp.Gal.6:10
- 5. These believer's stressful circumstances have made them irritable and thus James tells them to give it a rest, "Do not complain (Stop complaining), brothers, against one another".
- 6. The verb "complain/στενάζω stenazo" literally means to sigh or groan. Cp.Mar.7:34; Rom.8:23; 2Cor.5:2,4
- 7. It carries a nuance of becoming weary due to stress and pressure.
- 8. In a bad sense, it emphasizes complaining or a disagreeable attitude. Cp.Heb.13:17
- 9. Here, it emphasizes the MA of dissatisfaction more so than verbal manifestation.
- 10. Under the pressure of their testing in the A/C, these believers have turned to fault finding in complaint against one another.
- 11. This MA has obviously been manifested verbally as seen in their inward bickering and fighting.
- 12. They must not grow sullen and exasperated with one another.
- 13. When people are under pressure from the outside there is a tendency to take it out on others near and dear to us.
- 14. While each have their faults, its one thing to recognize the facts, but another to play STA Gestapo.
- 15. Their immediate problems demand that they get their eyes off of one another and get their own spiritual act together.

- 16. Otherwise, mutual accusation does nothing to advance them towards their own acclimation of niche.
- 17. Such activity is both useless and brings DD into the life as the following purpose clause denotes, "that you yourselves may not be judged".
- 18. When one unrighteously complains against another, they in effect judge them as incompetent.
- 19. Jesus taught against this by example in Mat.7:1ff cp. Luk.7:37.
- 20. Complaining indicates a STA psychological transference of misacclimation to one's niche upon the person of another.
- 21. It is evidence of impatience in the believer's life.
- 22. Rather than complaining, the believer is to constantly remind himself that God is the ultimate Judge. Jam.4:12
- 23. James' reinforces this principle in the final clause, "Behold, the Judge stands at the doors (plural)".
- 24. "Behold" again is a call for +V to assimilate and acclimate to the principle at hand. Cp.vs.7b
- 25. The Judge is our Lord, Jesus Christ. Joh.5:22
- 26. His "standing" is not a physical posture of the One seated at the right hand. Luk.22:69; Eph.1:20; Col.3:1; Heb.8:1
- 27. It represents His readied posture of presence in our lives to intervene in judgment as appropriate.
- 28. The plural noun "doors/θύρα thura" figuratively in the plural is used only in representing dispensational realities. Parable of the fig tree Mat.24:33; Mar.13:29
- 29. The "doors" are symbolic of the close of the CA and final era of the Age of Israel (Daniel's 70th week) respectively.
- 30. At the end of each dispensation, believers from their respective eras will be judged for their works in time (Bema for the CA, Rom.14:10; OT saints at the 2nd Advent, Rev.20:4).
- 31. It is not the believer's place to openly criticize others.
- 32. Further, the believer is to recognize that their own actions are also open to criticism.
- 33. For both parties in view, Christ will make the ultimate judgment at the proper time.
- 34. For those believers that unrighteously complain about the priesthood of others, it will ultimately cost them at the Bema.
- 35. This in conjunction with the DD they will receive in time.
- 36. These believers under pressures from within and without (oppression) were not applying towards each other.
- 37. They in fact were using each other as scapegoats for their own STA failures.
- 38. One unrighteous criticism makes one liable to DD and assurance of loss of SG₃.
- 39. The verbal sinning of complaining (amongst the others) denotes the disharmony that existed among them.
- 40. Believers should keep their eyes off of others and on their own spiritual lives.
- 41. For those that do not align themselves with BD, the Judge will ultimately deal with them.

EXHORTING WITH BIBLICAL EXAMPLES OF PATIENCE VSS.10-11

EXEGESIS VERSES 10 - 11:

GNT James 5:10 ὑπόδειγμα λάβετε, ἀδελφοί, τῆς κακοπαθίας καὶ τῆς μακροθυμίας τοὺς προφήτας οἳ ἐλάλησαν ἐν τῷ ὀνόματι κυρίου.

NAS James 5:10 (Revised) Take as an example, brothers, of suffering and patience, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. $\lambda \alpha \beta \epsilon \tau \epsilon$, $\lambda \alpha \mu \beta \alpha \nu \omega$ (vImpaa--2p; "Receive/Take") ὑπόδειγμα (n-an-s; "as an example/copy/pattern"; used 6x; in a positive sense, something to be imitated; ex. Joh.13:15) ἀδελφοί, ἀδελφός (n-Vm-p) τῆς ἡ κακοπαθίας κακοπάθεια (d.a. + n-gf-s; "of suffering/affliction upon someone/enduring in the active sense of facing trying or evil circumstances") καί (cc) τῆς ἡ μακροθυμίας μακροθυμία (n-gf-s; "patience/forebearance" cognate of the verb for patience in vss.7,8; hence patience towards others) τοὺς ὁ προφήτας προφήτης (d.a. + n-am-p; "the prophets") οϊ őς (rel.pro./nm-p; "who") έλάλησαν λαλέω "spoke/communicated") $\dot{\epsilon}\nu$ (pL) $\tau\hat{\omega}$ $\tau\hat{\sigma}$ $\dot{\sigma}\nu\dot{\sigma}\mu\alpha\tau\iota$ $\ddot{\sigma}\nu\dot{\sigma}\nu\mu\alpha$ (d.a. + n-Ln-s; "the name") κυρίου. κύριος (n-gm-s)

GNT James 5:11 ίδοὺ μακαρίζομεν τοὺς ὑπομείναντας· τὴν ὑπομονὴν Ἰώβ ἠκούσατε καὶ τὸ τέλος κυρίου εἴδετε, ὅτι πολύσπλαγχνός ἐστιν ὁ κύριος καὶ οἰκτίρμων.

NAS James 5:11 Behold, we count those blessed who endured. $i\delta o \dot{\nu}$ (inter.part.; "Behold") μακαρίζομεν μακαρίζω (vipa--1p; "we regard, think, consider or count as blessed/happy/fortunate"; used 2x; Luk.1:48) τοὺς ὁ ὑπομείναντας· ὑπομένω (d.a. + subs.ptc./a/a/am-p; "the ones having endured"; emphasizes patience towards circumstances) You have heard of the endurance of Job and have seen the outcome of the Lord's dealings, ἡκούσατε ἀκούω (viaa--2p; "you all have heard") τὴν ἡ ὑπομονὴν ὑπομονή (d.a. + n-af-s; "of the endurance/patience") Τωβ (n-gm-s; "of Job") καί (cc) εἴδετε, ὁράω (viaa--2p; "you all have seen") τό τέλος (d.a. + n-an-s; "the achievement/outcome") κυρίου κύριος (n-gm-s; "of the Lord"; sense is how the Lord delivered; hence His "dealings") that the Lord is full of compassion and is merciful. ὅτι (conj.; intro. indir. discourse; "that") ὁ κύριος (d.a. + n-nm-s) ἐστιν εἰμί (vipa--3s; "keeps on being") πολύσπλαγχνος (a--nm-s; "full of compassion/very compassionate"; hapax) καί (cc) οἰκτίρμων. (a--nm-s; "merciful"; used 2x; Luk.6:36)

ANALYSIS VERSES 10 - 11:

- 1. As conclusion to the subject of patience, James exhorts these believers by virtue of Biblical examples. Cp.Jam.2:21-25
- 2. He appeals to the OT as a source they are to draw from for encouragement and model for emulation.
- 3. This is the force of vs.10, "Take as an example, brothers, of suffering and patience, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord".
- 4. The imperative "Take/λαμβάνω lambano" literally means to "receive".
- 5. It emphasizes the importance of believers to accept the example given as historical fact recorded in the WOG.
- 6. The WOG is completely true historically as well as spiritually or ideologically.
- 7. The weight of its historical veracity is that which supports its spiritual veracity as evidence of its truths.
- 8. If the Bible is not true historically, then there is no surety of its veracity otherwise.
- 9. The historical example James uses indicates that all that is recorded in the Scriptures is for the purpose of edification.
- 10. The prophets as a corporate example were real men that lived in previous times facing their own share of persecution as believers.
- 11. Again, his address to the believers of his epistle as "brothers" is to relate them to the brotherhood of +V in time under grace.
- 12. They are commanded to take these multiple examples of OT prophets into their thoughts and apply the lesson to themselves.
- 13. Rather than looking to the cosmos for answers, they should be looking to the WOG emulating those faithful to it (or avoiding bad examples).
- 14. The religious history of their own people is replete with positive examples of faithfulness under suffering.
- 15. They are a pattern of how believers thereafter are to handle their own present sufferings in the A/C.
- 16. +V examples are those willing to persevere in the CWL.
- 17. The noun "suffering/κακοπάθεια kakopatheia" indicates affliction they endured brought about by evil circumstances.
- 18. It strongly suggests underserved suffering.
- 19. The noun "patience/μακροθυμία makrothumia" is the cognate to the verb used in vss.7,8 indicating patience with others.
- 20. With these two terms, James directly ties in the idea that -V is that primarily responsible for bringing underserved suffering into the believer's life.
- 21. Society (the world), being generally –V finds truth offensive.
- 22. You will win no popularity contests as a +V doctrinal believer.
- 23. Divine viewpoint is not even popular with evangelicals today.
- 24. OT prophets suffered as +V believers, being economically and religiously repressed.
- 25. They had the distinction as communicators speaking the plan of God to others.
- 26. This is the sense of the added designation of speaking in the name of the Lord.
- 27. The seriousness of their messages rested on the very laurels of the Master's reputation (His name).
- 28. What ever portion of God's word they delivered was to be received with the authority of God Himself.

- 29. They who were faithful did not tone down or dilute the message.
- 30. They were repeatedly pressured to do so.
- 31. Truth provokes the opposition of the cosmos including those negative to BD (in part or as a whole) within the church.
- 32. The suffering they endured came about as a result of their message.
- 33. Their words were not always welcome:
 - A. Daniel. Dan.6:1-24
 - B. Elijah. 1Kgs.19:1,2 cf.18:1-18
 - C. Jeremiah. Jer.38:1-13
 - D. Amos. Amo.7:7-13
- 34. Their title and suffering was almost synonymous. .2Chr.36:15-16; Jer.2:30; 20:7-10
- 35. For NT examples see, Mat.21:33-46; 23:29-39; Act.7:51,52; 1The.2:14,15; Heb.11:32-40.
- 36. The prophets endured the -V, not succumbing to them and their persecutions.
- 37. Communicators are easy front line targets for the negative to take issue.
- 38. Those that follow their example in the stand for truth can expect to experience the same. Phi.1:27-30; 1Pet.5:9
- 39. It is unreasonable and unbiblical to expect not to suffer for truth from spouse, family, friends and society.
- 40. Rather, you should expect it.
- 41. In vs.11, James inserts that which is most noteworthy of these faithful, "Behold, we count those blessed who endured".
- 42. A transition is made in vs.11 to the hupomeno/hupomone family of words denoting patience towards circumstances translated "endured" and "endurance" respectively.
- 43. This to now emphasize the allotted sufferings all believers can expect in the CWL.
- 44. The 1st person plural verb "we count as blessed/μακαρίζω makarizo" includes James
- 45. His statement is tantamount to saying that all that are +V think in the same way.
- 46. As we examine the record of OT and NT saints that acclimated to their Ph₂ testing of underserved sufferings, we readily acknowledge they are blessed for so doing.
- 47. We who know doctrine regard with favor those that exhibit patience under testing.
- 48. Such persons have insured that they will be favored with praise, honor and glory forever.
- 49. Those on the other hand that succumbed to pressure and threw away their confidence, we hold in disfavor. Cp.Heb.10:38,39
- 50. James' readers must now apply this to themselves.
- 51. Those who endured are believers that persevered and successfully completed their allotted Ph₂ testing.
- 52. They are believers faithful to the end; not just passing a number of tests only to fold before death.
- 53. James uses the same verb and noun for this patience in 1:3,4,12 as essential for maturity and securing the wreath.
- 54. Believers that persevere to the end are all examples of the highest form of courage in the CWL.
- 55. When you enter into the company of saints in glory, how do you want your Ph₂ to be recounted?

- 56. James then presents his 2nd OT example, "You have heard of the endurance of Job and have seen the outcome of the Lord's dealings".
- 57. Job is an especially good and most familiar example of the doctrine in view.
- 58. His name is mentioned only here in the NT.
- 59. In Eze.14:14,20, he is named alongside Noah and Daniel demonstrating his personal righteousness and place in Jewish thought.
- 60. James' readers had gained their knowledge of Job from public reading and instruction in the synagogue and church.
- 61. Job was not perfect under his undeserved suffering as seen in his protests to God. Job 7:11-16; 10:18; 23:2; 30:20-23
- 62. However, he endured his sufferings and remained loyal to God. Job 1:22; 2:10; 16:19-21; 19:25-27
- 63. At times, he exhibited a lack of patience, but persevered.
- 64. As encouragement to James' readers, he reminds them of the outcome of Job's sufferings.
- 65. The Lord delivered him from all his sufferings and provided him with greater prosperity than before his loss.
- 66. Job 42:10 describes his restoration as twofold and vss.11-17 describes his temporal prosperity.
- 67. His testing served to make him a greater believer and to refute Satan's slander. Job 1:11; 2:4,5
- 68. The outcome of our undeserved sufferings will be followed by an appropriate reward.
- 69. We must avoid bitterness, reactor factors and outright denial.
- 70. James finishes by pointing out that Job's case demonstrates "that the Lord is full of compassion and is merciful".
- 71. James freely borrows the thought and sentiment of Psa.103:8.
- 72. God's compassion is said to be in abundance.
- 73. His great compassion and mercy in vindicating, delivering and blessing Job is the same today.
- 74. This demonstrates God's attitude and dealings towards imperfect but +V believers.
- 75. God cannot change and the same steadfast loyalty under testing will assuredly bring an appropriate reward.
- 76. The lesson these believers are to learn is to stop reacting like the cosmos to their CHP's.
- 77. While, some have pursued the world, God can and will restore and provide them with a greater grace.
- 78. If they persevere, all their STA evil will be forgiven them restoring them to God's good graces and blessing.
- 79. Review the Doctrine of Suffering.

WARNING AGAINST TAKING OATHS

EXEGESIS VERSE 12:

GNT James 5:12 Πρὸ πάντων δέ, ἀδελφοί μου, μὴ ὀμνύετε μήτε τὸν οὐρανὸν μήτε τὴν γῆν μήτε ἄλλον τινὰ ὅρκον ήτω δὲ ὑμῶν τὸ Ναὶ ναὶ καὶ τὸ Οἢ οἴ, ἵνα μὴ ὑπὸ κρίσιν πέσητε.

NAS James 5:12 (Revised) But above all, my brothers, do not swear, neither by heaven nor by earth nor with any other similar oath; $\delta \acute{\epsilon}$, (ch) $\Pi \rho \acute{o}$ (pAbl; "before" in rank; hence "above") πάντων πᾶς (ap-gn-p; "all things") μου, ἐγώ (npg-1s; ref. James) ἀδελφοί ἀδελφός (n-Vm-p) μή (neg. +) ὀμνύετε ὀμνύω (vImppa--2p; "swear/confirm by oath"; used 26x) μήτε (cc; "neither"+) τὸν ὁ οὐρανὸν οὐρανός (d.a. + n-am-s; "by heaven") μήτε (cc; "nor") τὴν ἡ γῆν γῆ (d.a. + n-af-s; "by earth") μήτε (cc; "nor") τινὰ τἰς (indef. adj./am-s; "any") ἄλλον ἄλλος (a--am-s; "other"; another of the same kind, hence "similar") ὄρκον ὅρκος (n-am-s; "oath/vow"; used 10x) but let your yes be yes, and your no, no; δέ (ch) ἤτω εἰμί (vImppa--3s; "let it be") ὑμῶν σύ (npg-2p) τό (d.a./nns; "the thing"; not translated) Nαί (d.a. + affirm. part.; "yes") ναί (qs; "yes") καί (cc) τό (d.a./nns+) $O\ddot{v}$ οὐ (qs; "no") οὔ, οὐ (qs; "no") so that you may not fall under judgment. ἵνα (conj. purp.; "so that") μή (neg. +) πέσητε. πίπτω (vsaa--2p; "you may not fall") ὑπό (pa; "under") κρίσιν κρίσις (n-af-s; "judgment")

ANALYSIS VERSE 12:

- 1. Vs.12 concludes James' exhortation contrasting the conduct of believers to that of unprincipled –V epitomized by the super rich of the prophecy.
- 2. As noted, the conduct of these evil types centers on deception employing fraudulent and perjurious practices. Jam.5:4,6a
- 3. Honesty and forthright dealings towards others is not high in their list of acquired virtues.
- 4. Keeping their word and promises is only an act of convenience.
- 5. James in contrast ranks the virtue of honesty as premium in the believer's life.
- 6. This is the force of vs.12, "But above all, my brothers, do not swear, neither by heaven nor by earth nor with any other similar oath, but let your yes be yes, and your no, no".
- 7. James now reemploys his term of endearment with the phrase "my brothers" to indicate general exhortation over the previous rebukes and admonitions in chapter 4.
- 8. His exhortation views himself equal with them in matter of application.
- 9. The phrase "above all/πρό πας pro pas" literally is "before all things".
- 10. In the face of all circumstances in dealing with others, the believer is to refrain from using oath formulas to confirm their veracity.

- 11. Swearing via oaths is not using profanity, but the idea of invoking a higher authority or thing of more value or sacred to substantiate one's words.
- 12. Today, we might hear invocations such as "I swear on a stack of Bibles; on my life; to God; on my mother's grave; et al".
- 13. Further, James is not stating that taking an oath such as in a court of law is taboo.
- 14. James' appeal to oath taking must be understood in light of the present historical abuses of his time.
- 15. When a Jew took an oath invoking God's name, he took a risk on taking His name in vain, a clear violation of the Law. Exo.20:7; Deu.5:11
- 16. To get around this dilemma, Jews would swear by heaven or earth, or the temple and even one's head rather than by God's name.
- 17. Christ taught that they were not to make any oath at all in such fashion. Mat.5:34-37
- 18. The evil that stemmed from oaths was their use for deceptive practices in avoiding keeping one's word or responsibilities.
- 19. An example is the Corban gimmick in which it was a practice to avoid having to help older parents financially.
- 20. With Corban, a son could vow his money as a gift to the temple as an oath/promise, yet retain possession of it. Mat.23:16-22
- 21. The son could then swear to others that he had given his money as sacrifice.
- 22. This is obviously a most despicable form of lying, deceit and lack of integrity.
- 23. Taking oaths so as to appear to support truthfulness was actually being used to evade veracity.
- 24. Such duplicity is totally at odds with Christian conduct.
- 25. Oaths by the various titles of God were considered binding.
- 26. Those by heaven and earth were not.
- 27. As the Corban gimmick illustrates, other minute variations were invented in the formula to evade total veracity.
- 28. James, like Jesus, makes clear that believers are to avoid invoking outside powers to validate our words.
- 29. Whether in Jewish form (heaven or earth) or with any other similar oath.
- 30. Our integrity is to be based on our own honesty simply being straightforward with all that your yes or no is binding.
- 31. There is no place to be playing "loophole" games with others when making promises and commitments.
- 32. Crossing your fingers when you give someone your word is still a lie.
- 33. We should hold the integrity of our words to the same standard as the veracity of God's word.
- 34. When we give our word, we should keep it even to our own hurt. Psa.15
- 35. The unscrupulous types of humanity are notorious for the "small print" of contractual or binding obligations.
- 36. We are not to operate that way.
- 37. We should make a plain declaration of our intentions and keep our word.
- 38. Integrity and honesty are virtues of preservation before God. Psa.25:21; Pro.2:7; 10:9; 11:3; 19:1; 20:7; 28:6
- 39. To walk the Christian life with integrity should be our goal. Psa.26:1,11

- 40. Honesty is built up intellectually within by accepting the veracity of doctrine. Luk.8:15
- 41. It is then to be emulated in all our dealings with others.
- 42. Evasiveness of honesty is a sin relative to deceit.
- 43. To be less than honest opens the door to divine discipline as James concludes vs.12, "so that you may not fall under judgment".
- 44. Ananias and Sapphira are examples of judgment for being less than honest. Act.5:1-10
- 45. In our witness of the life, our witness stands on the very issue of veracity (BD).
- 46. For a believer that is seeking loopholes for their own honesty towards others, he emulates the kind of character that eventually brings about historical judgment.
- 47. True honesty is commitment to the integrity of the very words we speak.
- 48. Reputations of such are evidenced when one's word is considered good enough by another.

CLOSING REMARKS AND APPEALS VSS.13-20

EXEGESIS VERSE 13:

GNT James 5:13 Κακοπαθεῖ τις ἐν ὑμῖν, προσευχέσθω· εὐθυμεῖ τις, ψαλλέτω·

NAS James 5:13 Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praises. $\tau l \zeta$ (indef.pro./nm-s; "anyone") $\dot{\epsilon} \nu$ (pL) $\dot{\nu}\mu \hat{\nu}\nu$, $\sigma \dot{\nu}$ (npd-2p) Κακοπαθε $\hat{\iota}$ κακοπαθέω (vipa--3s; "suffering/enduring hardship"; used 3x) προσευχέσθω· προσεύχομαι (vImppd--3s; "Let him pray") $\tau \iota \zeta$, $\tau l \zeta$ (indef.pro./nm-s; "anyone") $\epsilon \dot{\nu}\theta \nu \mu \epsilon \hat{\iota}$ ε $\dot{\nu}\theta \nu \mu \epsilon \omega$ (vipa--3s; "cheerful/taking courage"; used 3x) $\dot{\nu}$ αλλέτω· $\dot{\nu}$ φάλλω (vImppa--3s; "Let him sing praises"; used 5x)

ANALYSIS VERSE 13:

- 1. Vss.13-18 is a single paragraph in the Greek text.
- 2. The unifying theme throughout the verses is prayer.
- 3. Vss.19-20 close the epistle with encouragement to believers in appealing to the reversionist for recovery.
- 4. Vs.13 presents two opposite situations found possible in the local church.
- 5. At any given point in time, the believer can find himself under testing or blessing.
- 6. James first addresses those feeling the heat of the A/C, "Is anyone among you suffering?"
- 7. The term "suffering/κακοπαθέω kakopatheo" indicates especially difficult testing brought about by the evil in this world.
- 8. Paul uses this term to indicate the severe undeserved suffering he underwent as a religious/political prisoner. 2Tim.2:9
- 9. He encourages Timothy to stay the course in his ministry enduring the underserved suffering he will face. 2Tim.4:5
- 10. The essence of this term is to highlight the high degree of suffering believers face for being +V (elephant tests).
- 11. At any given time in the CWL, believers may find themselves in the kind of severe testing in the spectrum of tests designed to openly evidence one's resolve and commitment to BD.
- 12. James then gives the prescription to successfully endure, "Let him pray".
- 13. The believer is to turn to God under such conditions.
- 14. Rather than wallow in self-pity and bitterness.
- 15. Prayer enables us to face the test with God's strength and wisdom.
- 16. The habit of prayer in our daily life is that which trains us for readied prayer when the elephant tests come down the pike.
- 17. We should not have to be under severe testing to begin a discipline of a prayer life.
- 18. Prayer is key to persevering in the CWL. Jam.1:2-5
- 19. James then addresses those on the total opposite spectrum of life, "Is anyone cheerful?"

- 20. The term "cheerful/εὐθυμέω euthumeo" looks to circumstances that bring about deliverance or blessing in life. Act.27:22,25 "keep up courage"
- 21. God's blessings (deliverances) are designed to help us keep our spirits up as encouragement and evidence He is with us.
- 22. James appeal to these two completely opposite spectrums assumes that all believers will have their share of sufferings and cheerfulness in their Ph₂.
- 23. The Christian life is an admixture of the two and whichever one is experiencing, they are to maintain the right focus and attitude demanded by the situations.
- 24. For those enjoying God's blessings, James says, "Let him sing praises".
- 25. The verb "sing praises/ψάλλω psallo" is the cognate of the noun for psalms.
- 26. Singing corporately as a local church is a legitimate function. Eph.5:19
- 27. Paul also speaks of singing with the H.S. and mind in 1Cor.14:15 to underscore the content being applied in FHS and unity of BD.
- 28. It was Jewish custom to sing praises to God in times of deliverance. Exo.15:1-21
- 29. James' emphasis is individual praise versus public praise.
- 30. The intent is that a tone of thanksgiving and praise to God should compliment all of our blessings and deliverances.
- 31. Whether one might literally sing out loud or within their heart satisfies the intent.
- 32. The bubbly or happy nature in our tone of thanksgiving is to give all glory and praise to God for His grace in our life.
- 33. We should always look to God in time of elation as well as testing.

PRAYER FOR THE CHRONICALLY CONFINED SICK VSS.14-15

EXEGESIS VERSES 14 – 15:

THE PROCEDURE

GNT James 5:14 ἀσθενεῖ τις ἐν ὑμῖν, προσκαλεσάσθω τοὺς πρεσβυτέρους τῆς ἐκκλησίας καὶ προσευξάσθωσαν ἐπ' αὐτὸν ἀλείψαντες αὐτὸν ἐλαίῳ ἐν τῷ ὀνόματι τοῦ κυρίου.

NAS James 5:14 Is anyone among you sick? τἰς (indef.pro./nm-s; ") ἐν (pL) ὑμῖν, σύ (npL-2p) ἀσθενεῖ ἀσθενέω (vipa--3s; lit. "sick/ill/suffering from a debilitating disease"; emphasizes the sickness itself; used 33x) Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, προσκαλεσάσθω προσκαλέω (vImpam--3s; "let he himself call for"; used 29x) τοὺς ὁ πρεσβυτέρους πρεσβύτερος (d.a. + ap-am-p; "the elders/presbyters") τῆς ἡ ἐκκλησίας ἐκκλησία (d.a. + n-gf-s; "of the church") καί (cc) προσευξάσθωσαν προσεύχομαι (vImpad--3p; "let them pray"; here as intercessory prayer) ἐπ' ἐπί (pa; "over") αὐτὸν αὐτός (npam3s; ref. the sick man) anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; ἀλείψαντες ἀλείφω (circ. ptc./a/a/nm-p; "after anointing"; used 9x) αὐτὸν αὐτός (npam3s) ἐλαίω ἔλαιον (n-In-s; "with oil"; used 11x) ἐν (pL) τῷ τό ὀνόματι ὄνομα (d.a. + n-dn-s; "the name") τοῦ ὁ κυρίον. κύριος (d.a. + n-gm-s)

THE RESULTS

GNT James 5:15 καὶ ἡ εὐχὴ τῆς πίστεως σώσει τὸν κάμνοντα καὶ ἐγερεῖ αὐτὸν ὁ κύριος κἂν ἁμαρτίας ἢ πεποιηκώς, ἀφεθήσεται αὐτῷ.

NAS James 5:15 and the prayer offered in faith will restore the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up, $\kappa\alpha\iota$ (cs) $\dot{\eta}$ εὐχ $\dot{\eta}$ (d.a. + n-nf-s; "the prayer") $\tau\eta\varsigma$ $\dot{\eta}$ πίστεως πίστις (d.a. + n-Ablf-s; "by means of the faith/offered in faith") σώσει σώζω (vifa--3s; "will deliver/restore") τὸν ὁ κάμνοντα κάμνω (d.a. + subs.ptc./p/a/am-s; "the one being sick/weak/weary"; used 2x; the emphasis is the weariness as a result of sickness) καί (cc) ὁ κύριος (d.a. + n-nm-s) ἐγερεῖ ἐγείρω (vifa--3s; "will raise up/restore to health") αὐτὸν αὐτός (npam3s) and if he has committed sins, they will be forgiven him. κἄν (cc & part.; "and if"; intro. 3rd class cond.) ἢ εἰμί (vspa--3s; "he might be"; eliptic +) πεποιηκώς, ποιέω (+ suppl.ptc./PF/a/nm-s; "doing"; hence, "he has committed") ἀμαρτίας άμαρτία (n-af-p; "sins") ἀφεθήσεται ἀφίημι (vifp--3s; "it will be forgiven") αὐτῶ. αὐτός (npdm3s)

ANALYSIS VERSES 14 - 15:

- 1. In vss.14-18, James expounds upon the effectiveness of prayer.
- 2. This to leave an indelible impression as to the importance of a disciplined prayer life associated with the diverse circumstances the believer faces in the CWL in vs.13.
- 3. He addresses a form of suffering any believer might undergo i.e., a health test.
- 4. In vss.14-15 he first targets any that might find themselves under a severe and unique test in this category, "Is anyone among you sick?"
- 5. The present tense of the verb "sick/ $\dot{\alpha}\sigma\theta\epsilon\nu\dot{\epsilon}\omega$ astheneo" looks to an ongoing chronic illness that has rendered the believer bedridden or other debilitating status.
- 6. That the believer is so incapacitated is made clear in vs.15 as the healing process literally "raises him up" indicating the previously reclined status.
- 7. The illness in view is such that the believer is not able to perform even the basic tasks of life around the house and otherwise.
- 8. It is a believer that is under such a severe health test that he is essentially unable to care for himself. Cp.Mar.6:56; Luk.4:40; Joh.4:46; 5:7; Joh.11:1ff; Act.9:37; etc.
- 9. Further the believer:
 - A. Is not responding to medical remedies as prescription for their illness.
 - B. Is not responding to general prayers for one another as a local body (cp.vs.16).
 - C. Is not under terminal SUD (cp.1Joh.5:16) or have otherwise finished their course and are dying.
- 10. The circumstance for this believer is unique.
- 11. It is a health test that has rendered them sick to the degree they have become incapacitated for an unspecified period of time.
- 12. Ultimately it views a believer so sick they are unable to physically function with any degree of normalcy in life.
- 13. Their health test has greatly neutralized their physical capabilities to perform in the A/C
- 14. Yet, it is apparent to the individual that they have not completed their course; they just can't get well.
- 15. This unique test calls for a unique procedure as James then instructs, "Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord".
- 16. Distortions of this verse include:
 - A. "Elders" are older men with apostolic gifts of healing.
 - B. The "oil" is magical and has healing properties.
 - C. It is applicable to any illness and the dying.
 - D. The "elders" are given healing powers.
 - E. Certain men of the church have the power and authority to seek out the sick and to hold public healing services.
- 17. The middle voice of the imperative "Let him call/προσκαλέω proskaleo" indicates that the believer is to act in his own interest or on his own behalf.
- 18. It is the responsibility of the ill believer to initiate the proceedings.
- 19. The elders are to then attend the believer at his bedside.
- 20. The "elders" refers to those that hold an office and when related to the church its etymology came to refer to "pastors (communicators holding office) and deacons". Cp.1Tim.5:17,19; Tit.1:5; 1Pet.5:1-3

- 21. James now specifically uses the term for "church/ἐκκλησία ekklesia" to define their assemblies (cp. Jam.2:2: "sunagoge") as local churches in the CA (both terms were used early in the CA).
- 22. Further, the procedure is viewed as unique reserved for believers in the CA.
- 23. Each of the church leaders is then to offer intercessory prayer on behalf of the believer (plural "let them pray").
- 24. But not until they have anointed him with oil in the name of the Lord.
- 25. The agrist participle "anointing" indicates action that is to precede the previous agrist imperative to "let them pray".
- 26. The verb itself (anointing/ἐλείφω eleipho") is used another 8x and always of a real application of the oil or substance in view. Mat.6:17; Mar.6:13; 16:1; Luk.7:38,46; Joh.11:2; 12:3
- 27. The kind of oil used is not stipulated, but olive oil was the predominate choice of the time.
- 28. Further, the anointing does not demand applying it to the entire body, but only an extremity such as a dab on the forehead.
- 29. The oil in this case is symbolic not referring to a medical procedure.
- 30. That the oil is not the agent of healing is made clear from the assertion of the prayer of faith in vs.15a.
- 31. It is representative of the H.S. that indwells the body of each believer. Cp.1Sam.16:13 cf.Joh.14:17; Rom.8:11
- 32. It symbolizes the subsidiary action of God as the true power for healing.
- 33. The phrase "in the name of the Lord" is to be announced with the application of the anointing.
- 34. This emphasizes that all of God's interaction with believers is based on the Person and work of Christ providing all healing prescriptions for mankind.
- 35. This both physically (Act.9:33-34) and spiritually (1Pet.2:24).
- 36. While vs.14 gives the procedures, vs.15 gives the results, "and the prayer offered in faith will restore the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up".
- 37. The ablative of the noun "faith/ $\pi i \sigma \tau \iota \varsigma$ pistis" makes specific the importance of faith as the means behind the prayer for restoration of health to be realized.
- 38. Those that pray should be in fellowship and confident of the Lord's ability to heal.
- 39. The future tense of "will restore/ $\sigma \dot{\omega} \zeta \omega$ sodzo" ensures a future deliverance from their dire situation, contingent upon meeting the prerequisites noted.
- 40. There is no indication of immediate deliverance and time should be allowed for the healing process.
- 41. One should not demand instant healing.
- 42. The participle translated "the one who is sick" in this verse ($\kappa \alpha \mu \nu \omega$ kamno) emphasizes the weak and weary condition brought about by the illness.
- 43. It is through the omnipotence of our Lord that the believer will regain their health and be raised up.
- 44. Again, the future tense of "will raise up" puts no time limit on God.
- 45. James then concludes with a conditional clause, "and if he has committed sins, they will be forgiven him".
- 46. The 3rd class condition states that maybe the believer has or has not committed sins.

- 47. Catholics abuse this passage in defense of their sacrament of extreme unction, whereby a person unable to speak due to illness or injury can still have his sins forgiven (to otherwise facilitate lack of verbal confession).
- 48. There is only one way the believers Ph₂ sins can be forgiven and that is through 1Joh.1:9/R_B.
- 49. The interpreter cannot disconnect James final statement from the context of a believer finding himself under this extreme health test.
- 50. The intent of James final notation is to recognize that believers may find themselves under severe health tests as a matter of divine disciple (DD) and sin in the life.
- 51. The forgiving of the "committed sins" (perfect tense of "doing/committing") indicates an aspect of sin that occurred in the past with existing results.
- 52. This indicates a state of perpetual carnality and suggests that the believer may be in his condition due to reversionism.
- 53. A possibility for some of James' audience as chapter 4 indicated.
- 54. However, the believer must still R_B and repent, in which case God will restore not only his health, but spiritual status also.
- 55. That the believer in view initiates this procedure further suggests that a believer in this condition has already determined to make reversion recovery.
- 56. The protocol and procedure outlined in the event of such a test in the church:
 - A. The sick believer is to initiate the proceedings.
 - B. The church is not to otherwise invade anyone's privacy and seek the sick out in this case.
 - C. The believer should predetermine their individual case as to simply a test or DD as a result of reversionism.
 - D. The church board is to attend at the believer's request.
 - E. The believer should be questioned as to their spiritual state and give indication that R_B and repentance has been realized if (3rd class) necessary.
 - F. Each member of the board is to anoint the believer with oil speaking "in the name of the Lord".
 - G. Each member of the board is then to offer intercessory prayer on behalf of the believer.
 - H. The subject believer should be advised to also pray for himself.
 - I. The prayers should acknowledge the will of God in the matter and state with confidence their faith in God as having the power and ability to heal the person.
 - J. It should acknowledge the power of the H.S. in the healing process as symbolized by the oil.
 - K. It is advisable to further end the prayer in the name of the Lord.
 - L. If reversion recovery is in view, thanking God for forgiveness of sins would further be appropriate.
 - M. It is up to each board member to make sure they are in FHS and pray in faith.
- 57. Believers should recognize that God's will is the ultimate determiner behind the healing.
- 58. The healing process may face disqualification for reasons stated in point 9, the protocol and procedure is incomplete or skewed, lack of faith or motives are not pure.
- 59. The board cannot read peoples minds and if verbal request is made, the board should accept the believer's statements and follow through with the procedure.

PRAYER FOR HEALING IN A WIDER USE

EXEGESIS VERSE 16:

GNT James 5:16 έξομολογεῖσθε οὖν ἀλλήλοις τὰς ὰμαρτίας καὶ εὔχεσθε ὑπὲρ ἀλλήλων ὅπως ἰαθῆτε. πολὺ ἰσχύει δέησις δικαίου ἐνεργουμένη.

GNT James 5:16 Therefore, confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. οὖν (infer.conj.; "Therefore") ϵξομολογϵῦσθϵ ϵξομολογϵω (vImppm--2p; "you yourselves openly confess/acknowledge/cite"; used 10x) ταζ ἡ αμαρτίας αμαρτία (d.a. + n-af-p; "the sins") αλλήλοις αλλήλων (recipr.pro./ dm2p; "to one another") καί (cc) ϵἔχϵσθϵ ϵἔχομαι (vImppd--2p; "pray") ὑπϵρ (pAbl; "on behalf of/for"; intercessory) αλλήλων (npAblm2p; "one another") ὅπως (cs; indicates purpose followed by the subjunctive; "so that") ἱαθῆτϵ. ἱαρμαι (vsap--2p; "you might be healed"; can ref. to either physical or spiritual healing; Cp.Act.28:27; Pet.2:24 cf. Luk.14:14; Heb.12:13; used 26x) The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much. ϵνϵργονμϵνη. ϵνϵργϵω (adj.ptc./p/m/nf-s; "itself working/effective" +) δϵησις (n-nf-s; "prayer/request/petition"; used 18x) δικαίου δίκαιος (ap-gm-s; "of a righteous man") ἱσχύϵι ἱσχύω (vipa--3s; "is powerful/able/can accomplish") πολυ πολυς (adv; "much")

ANALYSIS VERSE 16:

- 1. James in vs.16 expounds upon the fact that health issues can be as a result of DD for sin in the life as noted in vs.15.
- 2. This is the force of the conjunction "Therefore" that harks back to the preceding.
- 3. It spins off the effectiveness of prayer as seen in vss.14-15 applied on a wider scale.
- 4. Passages such as 1Cor.11:26-30 and Heb.12:4-13 teaches that DD often occurs to the body and that health issues can become more severe if sin in the life is not dealt with appropriately (cp.Heb.12:12-13).
- 5. Vs.16 is designed to exhort believers to deal with DD to the body before it becomes a case of reversionism and extreme health issues demanding the protocol of vss.14-15.
- 6. The appropriate applications are for believers as they function as a corporate local body.
- 7. This verse highlights one of the many reasons why it is important to be part of a local church as the procedures demand reciprocating actions between one another.
- 8. The wider application is set forth in vs.16a, "confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed".
- 9. The term "confess/έξομολογέω exomologeo" indicates an open verbal acknowledgment to others. Cp.Mat.11:25 (praise); Act.19:18; Phi.2:11

- 10. What is acknowledged by one believer to another are sins he/she has committed recognizing God is disciplining them in their bodies as a result.
- 11. In turn, believers to whom the sins have been confessed are to pray on behalf of the believer under DD so that God might restore their health.
- 12. The subjunctive mood of "may be healed" indicates the contingency of God's will in the matter as he reads the hearts and souls of believers.
- 13. This emphasizes the importance of the intents behind confessions and prayers seeking first the spiritual well-being of the confessor.
- 14. The present tenses of the imperatival verbs "confess" and "pray" indicates that this type of interaction between believers should be ongoing as necessary.
- 15. The phrases "to one another" and "for one another", looks to the reciprocating actions between believers in their fellowship as a local church.
- 16. This activity is mutual and not official (vss.14-15).
- 17. There is no indication that public confession is in view.
- 18. The interaction is personal and private.
- 19. A believer that is sick (or injured) due to DD is encouraged to tell close confidants within the church so that intercessory prayers on their behalf might help speed recovery.
- 20. A lot of people do not need to be told; one is enough or other few with whom one is comfortable with their disclosure.
- 21. The audience for confession should not be prone to gossip and fairly mature.
- 22. They should be +V, spiritual (FHS & doctrinally oriented) and someone you trust.
- 23. It is not necessary that the believer give all of the gory details of their STA activity, or even what the actual sins were.
- 24. Simple acknowledgement that they have sinned is sufficient.
- 25. For believers to interact with one another on such a personal basis demands an established camaraderie within the church.
- 26. Further it demands intellectual honesty of believers to recognize DD in the life and courage to admit it.
- 27. Most sins can be named immediately (to God) and the DD is minimal, if any.
- 28. But when sin is perpetuated and not isolated, more serious DD can occur.
- 29. Each individual believer must determine for himself when this application is appropriate.
- 30. It is certainly advisable to solicit prayer support from someone you trust for any occasion, especially in battling the STA accompanying warning signs (DD) by God.
- 31. In vs.16b, James directly asserts the helpfulness of prayer, "The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much".
- 32. The power of prayer is here related to the petitioner.
- 33. "A righteous man" denotes the experiential standing of the believer.
- 34. Such a believer is "able to do much" (ἰσχύω πολύς ischuo polus).
- 35. The +V adjusted believer's prayer is an active power producing results conducive to the well-being of +V.
- 36. Such prayer involves:
 - A. A righteous believer.
 - B. Fastidious persistence. Cp.Luk.11:5-8 cf.vss.1-4; 18:1-8; Mar.7:24-30
 - C. Produces results that are significant and have impact.

ILLUSTRATION OF THE POWER OF PRAYER VSS.17-18

EXEGESIS VERSES 17 – 18:

GNT James 5:17 Ἡλίας ἄνθρωπος ἦν ὁμοιοπαθὴς ἡμῖν, καὶ προσευχῇ προσηύξατο τοῦ μὴ βρέξαι, καὶ οὐκ ἔβρεξεν ἐπὶ τῆς γῆς ἐνιαυτοὺς τρεῖς καὶ μῆνας ἕξ·

NAS James 5:17 Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain; Ἡλίας (n-nm-s; "Elias/Elijah"; used 29x; 27x in gospels) ἢν εἰμί (viIPFa--3s) ἄνθρωπος (n-Pred.nm-s) ὁμοιοπαθής ὁμοιοπαθής (a--nm-s; "with a similar nature"; used 2x; Act.14:15) ἡμῖν, ἐγώ (npd-1p; "to us/like our"; ref. James and readers) καί (cc) προσευχή (n-If-s; "with prayer" +) προσηύξατο προσεύχομαι (viad-3s; "he prayed"; Hebraism; "he prayed earnestly") μή (neg. "not" +) τοῦ ὁ βρέξαι, βρέχω (d.a. + inf.purp./aag; "to rain": "so that it wouldn't rain"; used 7x; emphasizes no moisture or making wet at all) and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months. καί (ch) οὐκ οὐ (neg. +) ἔβρεξεν βρέχω (viaa--3s; "it did not rain") ἐπί (pg) τῆς ἡ γῆς γῆ (d.a. + n-gf-s) τρεῖς (card. adj./am-p; "three") ἐνιαντός (n-am-p; "years"; same as 4:13) καί (cc) ἕξ (card.adj./am-p; "six") μῆνας μήν (n-am-p; "new moons/months")

GNT James 5:18 καὶ πάλιν προσηύξατο, καὶ ὁ οὐρανὸς ὑετὸν ἔδωκεν καὶ ἡ γῆ ἐβλάστησεν τὸν καρπὸν αὐτῆς.

NAS James 5:18 And he prayed again, and the sky poured rain, and the earth produced its fruit. καί (cc) προσηύξατο, προσεύχομαι (viad--3s; "he prayed") πάλιν (adv.; "again") καί (ch) δ οὐρανός (d.a. + n-nm-s; "the heaven/atmosphere/sky") ἔδωκεν δίδωμι (viaa--3s; "gave/poured") ὑετὸν ὑετός (n-am-s; "rain"; used 5x) καί (ch) ἡ γῆ (d.a. + n-nf-s) ἐβλάστησεν βλαστάνω (viaa--3s; "sprouted/produced/yielded"; used 4x) αὐτῆς. αὐτός (npgf3s; ref. the earth) τὸν δ καρπὸν καρπός (d.a. + n-am-s; "the fruit")

ANALYSIS VERSES 17 – 18:

- 1. In vss.17-18, James again appeals to OT example to validate a doctrinal position. Cp.2:9-11, 21-26; 5:10-11
- 2. Here to document the power of prayer by the experientially righteous (vs.16b).
- 3. Elijah is mention some 29x in the NT, 27x in the gospels.

- 4. As a prominent Jewish figure there was much interest in his unusual ministry and forceful personality sparked by his prophetic return before the 2nd Advent. Mal.4:5
- 5. Jews tended to place him above ordinary mortals (superhuman proportion) probably fueled by his transference to Sheol paradise alive. 2Kgs.2:11-12
- 6. James choice of example in part suggests addressing an erroneous mentality believers often adopt regarding certain Biblical figures.
- 7. That is that believers like Abraham, Rahab, Job, Elijah, etc., were somehow more perfect and righteous (vs.16b) than the normal +V adjusted believer (God was in someway more for them).
- 8. This example is to disarm any thought that an otherwise adjusted believer may have feeding a lack of confidence that their prayers could never attain to the kind of effectiveness such as Elijah's.
- 9. The fact is that even the greatest of believers failed under their STA's. Ecc.7:20
- 10. This is the force behind James' introduction of example, "Elijah was a man with a nature like ours".
- 11. Elijah possessed a sin nature and was subject to the same temptations and weaknesses as other men.
- 12. The compound Greek term "like-nature/ὁμοιοπαθής homoiopathes" emphasizes similar suffering as a result of STA passions or predilections. Cp.Act.14:15
- 13. Elijah was a prophet that lived during the notorious reign of Ahab and Jezebel in Israel (~874-853 BC). 1Kgs.16:29-33
- 14. At one point Jezebel threatened to kill Elijah to which he gave in to fear and anger (1Kgs.19:1-4) and later complains to God against Israel (1Kgs.19:10,14 cp.Rom.11:2).
- 15. Yet in spite of his failures, God honored and answered his prayers, "and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain; and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months".
- 16. The point of Elijah as example is if God answered his prayers, why not ours?

ANALYSIS VERSES 19 - 20:

- 1. James consolidates his previous thoughts regarding DD and effectiveness of the righteous praying with the concept of reversionism to close his epistle.
- 2. As his epistle has revealed, many of these believers were in need of strong rebuke for various inadequacies, including:

- 10. It further assumes that reversionism can and does exist in local churches as the locative of location "among you" indicates.
- 11. The sign and indication of reversionism is "straying from the truth".
- 12. "The truth" is the content of Scripture i.e., BD.
- 13. The passive verb "strays/πλανάω planao" indicates an outside agent that is involved in deceiving the believer to opt for that which is disobedient to the truth.

- 40. Vs.20 then presents the important results of such a ministry, "let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save his soul from death, and will cover a multitude of sins".
- 41. The exhortative encouragement to apply in this area is expressed by the phrase "let him know".

- 52. The sense of "cover" is not as in hiding or keeping them secret.
- 53. It carries the nuance of securing their forgiveness. Psa.32:1; 85:2
- 54. The future reality for reversion recovery is that one's sins have been forgiven and he will avoid the plethora of additional sin activity his reversionism was producing.
- 55. When one is in reversionism, their life as a whole during that time is viewed as a continuous state of carnality.
