

DOCTRINE OF THANKSGIVING

- I. Preliminary considerations.
- A. Thanksgiving is a prayer expressing gratitude and appreciation to God for His person and works. Psa.75:1; 1The.1:2-4
  - B. It is closely associated with praise in Scripture and is considered a spiritual sacrifice. Psa.79:13; Heb.13:15
  - C. It is one of four aspects of prayer, including intercession, petition and imprecatory. Phi.4:6
  - D. It can be rendered through song. Col.3:16; Psa.147:7
  - E. It should be characterized by spontaneity (Act.28:15) and in regard to all circumstances (1The.5:18).
  - F. The doctrine is designed to heighten our awareness of the importance of offering thanks to God for all things.
  - G. It is the appropriate attitude of believers toward God.
  - H. Negative volition does not thank God, as it does not truly accept His revelation. Rom.1:21
- II. Vocabulary.
- A. Hebrew.
    - 1. תָּדַח – todah; noun; translated “thanksgiving” 18x.
    - 2. יָדָה – yadah; verb; translated “give thanks” 64x; praise 3x.
  - B. Greek.
    - 1. εὐχαριστέω – eucharistéo; verb; “give thanks” 38x.
    - 2. εὐχάριστος – eucharistos; adj.; “be thankful” 1x.
    - 3. εὐχαριστία – eucharistia; noun; “gratitude, thankfulness” 15x.
- III. It is good to thank and praise the Lord. Psa.92:1
- IV. Thanksgiving is commanded. Psa.95:2; 97:12; 100:4; 105:1; 106:1; Eph.5:4; Phil.4:6; Col.3:15-17; 1The.5:18; 1Tim.2:1; Heb.13:15
- V. The righteous give thanks forever. Psa.52:8,9; 79:13
- VI. It is evidence of the Spirit-filled life and God’s Ph<sub>2</sub> will. Eph.5:20; 1The.5:18
- VII. It is the continual theme of the 3rd heaven. Rev.4:9; 7:12; 11:17
- VIII. There was a special category of peace offering designated "Thanksgiving Peace Offering". Lev.7:12,13,15 cp.2Chr.29:31; Psa.50:14,23; 56:12
- IX. King David appointed certain Levites (headed by Asaph) to form a choir for the praise and thanksgiving of God. 1Chr.16:4,41 cp.25:3; 2Chr.20:20-22 (basis for victory in the days of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah); 2Chr.30:13-22 (a part of the spiritual restoration in the days of Hezekiah). This function continued in the days of the restoration from Babylonian captivity. Ezr.3:10,11; Neh.12:8.

- X. Things we are to be thankful for.
  - A. The person of God. 1Chr.29:13; Psa.7:17
  - B. His judgments. Psa.75; Rev.11:17
  - C. His works and wonders. Psa.9:1 cp.Psa.136; Rev.4:9-11
  - D. His word. Psa.33; 119:7,62; 138:2,4; Col.2:7
  - E. Deliverance from a pre-mature death. Isa.38:18-19
  - F. Forgiveness, DD, reversion recovery and deliverance from SUD. Psa.30:2-5; Isa.12:1
  - G. Ph<sub>2</sub> vindication. Psa.140:12,13
  - H. Deliverance from enemies. 2Sam.22:48-50; Psa.18:48-50
  - I. Daily food. Mat.15:36 (Jesus' example); Act.27:35 (Paul's example); 1Tim.4:3,4
  - J. Christ and our salvation. 2Cor.9:15; 2The.2:13.
  - K. Ph<sub>3</sub> blessing. Col.1:12
  - L. Ultimate victory over the STA. Rom.7:24,25; 1Cor.15:56,57
  - M. Grace for daily living and for our ambassadorship. 2Cor.2:14
  - N. The +V and application of others. Rom.1:8; 6:17; 16:4; 2Cor.1:11; 4:15; 8:16; Eph.1:16; Phi.1:3; Col.1:3-7; 1The.1:2; 2:13; 3:9; 2The.1:3; 2Tim.1:3; Philm.4
  - O. Various blessings and opportunities. 1Cor.1:14; 14:18; 1Tim.1:12
  - P. Positional grace. 1Cor.1:4
  - Q. For civil and other authorities maintaining law and order. 1Tim.2:1,2
- XI. Israel will give thanks before the world in the last days. Isa.12:1,4; 25:1ff; Jer.33:11.
- XII. Thanksgiving is one of our main responses to the Lord's Table; "Eucharist" (from eucharisteo) is a term to designate the ritual. Cf.1Cor.11:24

*"So we Your people and the sheep of Your pasture Will give thanks to You forever;
To all generations we will tell of Your praise."
Psa.79:13*